To Whom It May Concern:

Kenny Lindsay successfully completed his duties as an auctioneer for me on Sunday, August 6, 2006, at my home in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

From the start, Kenny was energetic and pleasant to work with, and he was genuinely interested in my level of comfort and focused on my need to liquidate the estate quickly. He made time to give me the assurance that he would do everything possible to get the most from the sale, but was also realistic about the auction market value of the items.

Trying to take the worry and concern from me, he took care of all details of the auction, including signage, setup, parking, and cleanup.

Kenny Lindsay is a dedicated auctioneer, always listening to the seller and creating a sale that works best for everyone involved.

Sincerely,
