Dear Mr. Lindsay:

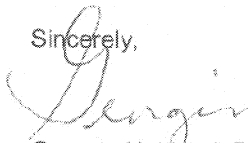

I can hardly find the words to adequately express my genuine gratitude. Your generous gift, of your time and talent, to the students of Woodward Academy was an unexpected surprise. And, then when I heard the news regarding how much money was raised at our Parent Recognition Luncheon and Auction, I was simply amazed. Our Woodward Academy family is now more enriched because of your skills as an auctioneer and to due the generosity of others who contributed with your gentle prompting. (Smiles!)

I have already heard many positive comments and accolades about our auction from both parents and staff. And, those who were unable to attend are already asking whether this will become an annual event. Not only was this an incredible fundraiser for our school, it also a whole lot of fun! I have never seen our parents, staff and Board members so excited.

Thank you again for your unforgettable, generous gift. It does not occur often enough in life that someone takes the time to share his time and talent with those who are less fortunate. And, for this we are all truly grateful.

Kenneth, you are the greatest!

Sincerely,

Georgia Hubbard, PhD
Superintendent
